

To Be Made Well

Epiphany Series: The God Beyond Compare: Healing Names of Jesus

Ps 147:3, Ez 36:26, Matt 9:9-12, Eph 4: 18, 22-24(Name #6: Jesus Is "The Great Physician"), Feb 12th, Valentine Sunday

Before we can fully appreciate the cure Jesus provides, we must first recognize the _____ and _____ condition He comes to heal.

Too often we only want a remedy for our _____ but Jesus comes to heal the _____.

There is a significant difference between _____ and _____. We are in need of nothing less than a complete _____.

People are tempted to not receive the _____ and seek out a _____.

Jesus shows in the discussion with critics at Matthew's house that our condition is most threatening to our spiritual well being when our _____ are not _____ to the world's view.

No amount of positive _____ is enough to provide our physical healing and it's also not enough to provide our spiritual healing.

Specialized health care for severe needs is excessively _____. It's also excessively _____ spiritually but Jesus covers the _____.

After Jesus performs the needed replacement of our heart, we are then called without exception to live into the "_____."

Heart health is dependent on _____. Jesus stressed we would only experience His healing when we _____ in His _____.

In order to enjoy the wholehearted life Jesus provides we must lay aside _____ that _____ us and strive with _____ the race set before us.